

Family Law Process to Request Remote Appearance

For Evidentiary & Non-Evidentiary Proceedings:

1. The party/attorney requesting remote appearance, must provide notice to the other party(ies). Notice may be in writing, orally, electronically, or orally in a way reasonably calculated to ensure notice is received at least 10 court days before an evidentiary proceeding (such as contempt, domestic violence/elder abuse, and trial) and at least 3 court days before a non-evidentiary proceeding.
2. The party/attorney requesting remote appearance must notice the court by filing a Notice of Remote Appearance (form RA-010) at least 10 court days before an evidentiary proceeding and at least 3 court days before a non-evidentiary proceeding, by mailing or placing in the court drop box at the William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse on 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.
3. A new Notice of Remote Appearance (form RA-010) will be required for each new hearing, excluding continuances.
4. Notice of Remote Appearance (form RA-010) may be used to provide proof to the court that notice to the other party(ies) was given.

Family Law Process to Oppose Remote Appearance

For Evidentiary Proceedings:

1. A party opposing a remote appearance in an evidentiary proceeding shall serve and file an Opposition to Remote Proceeding at Evidentiary Hearing or Trial (form RA-015) at least 5 court days, but no later than 1 court day, before the proceeding at the Williams R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse on 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826, by drop box or US Mail. For a contempt or domestic violence/elder abuse proceeding, the Opposition form RA-015 should be addressed to the respective court department. For a trial proceeding, the Opposition form RA-015 should be addressed to the Supervising Judge's court department.
2. The court will issue a written Order Regarding Remote Appearance (form RA-020), noticing parties whether appearing remotely is allowed or not; or may choose to present an oral order at the hearing. If Order form RA-020 is not received from the court prior to the court hearing, parties can assume the court will provide an oral order at hearing, and parties can appear remotely until the court issues formal ruling on the objection.

Zoom Court Hearing Instructions & Etiquette Guide

Downloading the Zoom Application

1. Downloading the Zoom Application to your computer and/or Smart device.

If you have never used Zoom on your computer or Smart device, you will need to download the Zoom Application prior to using Zoom. Be sure to allow yourself at least 15-20 minutes to download and test the program well in advance of your court hearing date and time.

2. To download the appropriate Zoom Application to your computer or Smart device, you must use the link provided on your notice or minute order. Once there, follow the download instructions provided.

For additional information on Zoom, please refer to their website at: <https://www.zoom.us/>

Zoom Court Appearance Sign-in

1. Having confirmed that you have the Zoom Application downloaded on your device, open Zoom and select Join a Meeting, using the meeting link that was provided for your Zoom court appearance. As you sign into the meeting, you will need to type your full name, so the court can identify you to call your case.

2. You will be staged in the Zoom Waiting Room, until a court representative takes roll and checks you into or invites you into your court appearance. Please be sure you join the meeting at least 5 minutes before your hearing date and time. This roll call process will take several minutes, so please be patient until a court representative makes contact with you in Zoom.

Telephone Appearance Alternative

1. For those individuals who do not have a computer or smart device with internet access, you can still appear telephonically by calling the designated phone number provided to you in your notice for a Zoom court appearance. You can use any land-line or cell phone to appear telephonically.
2. Once you call-in, you will be staged in the Zoom Waiting Room, until a court representative takes roll and checks you into or invites you into your court appearance. Please be sure you call into the meeting at least 5 minutes before your hearing date and time. This roll call process will take several minutes, so please be patient until a court representative makes contact with you in Zoom.

Telepresence/Virtual Court Appearance Etiquette/Guide

Conducting a virtual court appearance, either through Zoom video or telephonically, will require you to adhere to the following guidelines:

- Join or call into the meeting at least 5 minutes before your hearing date and time. Be sure to check you equipment well prior to this date and time, to be sure your device or phone functions properly.
- Do not speak over individuals. Only one person should speak at any given time.
- When you do speak, be sure to announce yourself by name (“This is Sam Jones, and I would like to say...”).
- If you are on video, be sure to frame your camera correctly, with your face in the center of the screen. Your background should be neutral, (like a clear wall) and absent of anything that may be perceived as offensive. Additionally, if you are on video, be sure to wear clothing appropriate for the formal court environment.
