PROPOSITION 36 PROGRAM

Welcome to the Proposition 36 program. Proposition 36 is no longer a funded mandate. This means participants who choose treatment in lieu of incarceration will pay for their treatment. If you are indigent and have proof you are homeless, unemployed, or receiving General Assistance, you can request a financial eligibility form. You can request this from one of the drug treatment Providers (listed below), after you attend an orientation. You will present that form to the Judge on your next court date. Meanwhile, follow the next simple steps toward sobriety and case dismissal.

1. Immediately after Court, or within 1 day of your release from jail (if you are in custody), you will receive your referral to one of the programs below from your attorney, by mail, or by email. Please be sure to provide the Court with your current contact information.
2. Report to the Probation Department and complete a contact sheet at the reception window. The Probation Department is located at 711 E Street.
3. Attend an orientation at one of the following Alcohol and Drug Providers. The orientation will provide you with valuable information to assist you with treatment and case dismissal.
4. If you were referred by Parole, you must provide a waiver and CDCR 1502 Activity Report or CDCR Parole Decision Making Instrument.
