Sacramento Superior Court Announces Transfer of Certain Traffic Case Collections

Sacramento, CA — Certain Sacramento County traffic cases with outstanding fines have been transferred to Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP (LGBS) for collection, the Sacramento Superior Court announced.

If a traffic case has been transferred, LGBS will be responsible for collecting the remaining balance of the fine and parties may be contacted by LGBS outlining balance and payment options.

If you require additional information or assistance after this time, you may contact LGBS directly at 1-844-566-6558.

Payment Options

- Online Payments
  - Payments may be made online at <http://www.lgbswebpayments.com>. You will need the Client Code and Online Payment Number included in your LGBS correspondence letter.
- Mail Payments
  - Payments may also be submitted by mail to:
LGBS, LLP
PO Box 708900
San Antonio, TX 78270

When mailing payments, please include the following:

- Check, cashier's check, or money order payable to LGBS
- Full Name
- Account Number
- Agency ID
