Frederick Mills

(Term Expires October 2020)

Mr. Mills was appointed to the Commission on December 15, 2009. He was the president and principal consultant of Mills and Associates, since its inception in 1985, providing consultant services to a wide variety of local and state agencies, private companies, and as needed to the National Council on Crime and Delinquency. Mr. Mills has served on expert panels involved in the identification of deficiencies in the Safety and Welfare Plan prepared by the Division of Juvenile Justice, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation; and has been involved in numerous projects ranging from The California Endowment's Mental Health Program, to assessing various counties for mental health readiness, as well as Santa Barbara's Reengineering Reentry Pilot Project. From October 1997 to December 2002, Mr. Mills was the principal contributing consultant to the National Council on Crime and Delinquency for implementation of the Federal Office Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's Comprehensive Strategy for Serious, Violent and Chronic Juvenile Offenders. His responsibilities included establishing a comprehensive, strategic continuum of prevention, intervention, and sanction services working with 52 sites in eight states. Mr. Mills has over 48 years of experience in the private and public sectors in human resources management and program development and implementation. He worked over 30 years in the correctional field for the State of California as deputy secretary of the Youth and Correctional Agency; deputy director of the California Youth Authority, deputy director of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, assistant chief of Planning and Resource Development for the Youth Authority, and the principal state-wide trainer for the development, implementation and training for all Youth Authority peace officers on laws of arrest, search and seizure.

Stephanie Nguyen

(Term Expires August 16, 2018)

Ms. Nguyen was appointed to the Commission on December 16, 2014. As the Executive Director for Asian Resources, Inc. (ARI), Stephanie Nguyen has dedicated her career to ensuring that the underserved and the low-income communities have access to resources and have the adequate support that will get them one step closer to self-sufficiency. In an era of diminished resources, Stephanie thrives on expanding the possibilities for community development by emphasizing creative ways to use existing resources more effectively. Prior to ARI, Stephanie was the Director of the Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber (SACC) Foundation where she implemented programs that would help build and develop leadership skills for young Asian Pacific Islanders (API) understand their individual strengths. The goal was to increase the quality of API leaders in Sacramento. In addition, she fostered relationships with the corporate donors to invest their charitable donations to worthy programs that would cultivate the underserved communities. Before joining SACC, Stephanie was a Business Developer where she was consulting business establishments on building strategies to connect with the various API communities, as well as connecting them to resources available to the great Sacramento community. Stephanie credits her life experiences from growing up in a low-income family household to her professional experience where she has built the drive and passion to continue to work in the community to bridge the gap between those less fortunate than her to resources that can help them become sufficient. Stephanie's passion for the community and social justice includes serving in a leadership capacity for several organizations in Sacramento. Stephanie has served on the District Attorney's Multi Cultural Council, California Exposition Cultural Advisory Council, OCA and the Pacific Rim Street Festival Foundation. She is currently on the Sheriffs Community Advisory Board, Secretary for the Council of Asian Pacific Islander Together for Advocacy and Leadership (CAPITAL), Advisor to the Full Circle Project and To'utupu'o e'out Felenite Association (TOFA) and a member of the Juvenile Justice Commission. On February 22, 2017, Stephanie was unanimously appointed to serve as the Councilmember for District 4 in the City of Elk Grove. She is a proud graduate of Sacramento State University where she earned a B.A. in Liberal Studies with a concentration on Human Development.
