PART TEN. Settlement Approval Motions for Class and/or Private Attorneys General Act “PAGA” Actions

2.99.05 Settlement Approval Motions

- (A) Trial judges are fiduciaries for absent class members. Therefore, parties seeking to settle class actions must provide a trial judge with sufficient information to determine if the settlement was fair, adequate, and reasonable. This standard also applies to requests for attorneys’ fees and costs. To that end, the Court has created a checklist regarding the information and argument the Court requires to grant a motion for preliminary and final approval of a class action and/or PAGA settlement. The checklist can be found at: <https://www.saccourt.ca.gov/civil/complex-civil-cases.aspx>.
- (B) All parties shall carefully review the checklist and fully comply with each applicable item to ensure a prompt ruling from the Court. The preliminary and final approval motion must follow the same order as the checklist, as that is how the Court will review the motion.
- (C) The moving papers for a preliminary and final approval motion for a class action and/or PAGA settlement must include a declaration that attests to the fact that: (1) counsel for the moving party has reviewed the settlement checklist; and (2) that the moving papers were prepared in compliance with the checklist. Failure to provide this declaration will result in the denial of the approval motion without prejudice.
- (D) Failure to provide the required information stated in the checklist wastes judicial resources and imposes unnecessary burdens on the parties and the Court. Failure to comply with the checklist may lead to an order to show cause regarding sanctions and/or a reduction in the requested attorneys’ fee award. (Adopted 7/1/2024)
