

Civil Harassment Restraining Order (CHRO) Step 2 Packet

Sacramento Superior Court Civil Self-Help Services

Forms to serve on the person you want protection from AFTER you file your initial request for protection.

The following BLANK forms must be served on the person you want protection from, and they are included in this packet. You do not need to keep a copy of these forms.

CH-120 Response to Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders
CH-120 INFO How Can I Respond to a Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders?
CH-250 Proof of Service by Mail
CH-800-INFO How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearems?
CH-800 Receipt for Firearms and Firearm Parts

The forms you already filed with the court must also be served on the person you want protection from. If you are picking this packet up from the court, they will be attached at the end.

- CH-100 Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order
- CH-109 Notice of Hearing
- CH-110 Temporary Restraining Order

ORDERS CANNOT BE ENFORCED UNTIL SERVED.

You must serve a copy of everything you filed with the court (including attachments) on the person you want protection from.

SERVICE ON THE RESPONDENT

You are responsible for having the respondent (the person you want protection from) personally served with a copy of everything listed on the front page at least 5 court days before the hearing (unless the Court orders a shorter time). Any adult who is not protected by the order can personally hand the copies to the respondent. Service cannot be completed by certified mail.

Sacramento Sheriff's Civil Bureau: If the respondent lives in Sacramento County, you may have the Sacramento Sheriff's Civil Bureau serve them. You will need to have at least one (1) address where you think the respondent might be between the hours of 9:00 AM and 3:00 PM. The Sacramento Sheriff's Civil Bureau will not look up addresses for you. See the SER-001 Request for Sheriff to Serve Court Papers at the end of this packet for more instructions.

The Sacramento Sheriff's Civil Bureau charges $50.00 to serve. The Court may order it waived on CH-110, or with a Fee Waiver (FW-001).

Online: You can submit requests for service to the Sheriff's Civil Bureau online. Find more information about this process at the e-SERVICES PORTAL: civil.sacsheriff.com/Portal/.

In Person: Public counter hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM, excluding holidays. A drop box is available 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM in front of the Civil Bureau Office.

Sacramento Sheriff's Civil Bureau 2969 Prospect Park Drive, Suite 200 Rancho Cordova, CA 95670

Kiosk You may submit requests to serve to the Sheriff's Civil Bureau by using the kiosk in the lobby of the Civil Bureau office. The kiosk is available during public counter hours.

You must get your forms to the Sheriff's Civil Bureau a minimum of 15 days prior to the last day for service.

If you have questions about the above information, please contact the Sacramento Sheriff's Civil Bureau office:

Friend or Family Member: Anyone over the age of 18, and not protected by the order can serve the forms for you. After this person serves the forms, they need to complete and sign a Proof of Personal Service (CH-200, not included).

Process Server: If you cannot locate the person for service, you can hire a process server to find them and serve them. These fees cannot be waived by the Court.

FILING PROOF OF SERVICE: If you have the Sheriff's Civil Bureau serve the respondent, they will send proof of service to the court, and a copy to you.

If you had a friend or family member serve the respondent, they will need to fill out and sign CH-200. Make sure you or the person who did the service check the boxes next to each of the forms that were served.

Take an original plus one (1) copy (2 total) to the Civil Harassment Filing Window BEFORE YOUR HEARING at the location below.

IF YOU CANNOT TURN IN PROOF OF SERVICE BEFORE YOUR HEARING, BRING IT TO COURT WITH YOU.

SERVICE CHECKLIST

Take the staples out of this packet, and the attached forms you got back from thecourt. Remove pages 1-4. These do not need to be served, and are just for your information.

If you are going to have the Sheriff serve, you will need 2 complete sets of forms for service, and you will have to check off both boxes to have enough forms. You will present the Sheriff's Civil Bureau with 2 identical stacks of forms for service. They also require a completed Sheriff's Instruction sheet.

Some boxes are checked to indicate that the Court has provided you a copy of that form for service in this packet. For example, if you have a friend serving the respondent for you, you only need to make copies of CH-100, CH-109 and CH-110, and add them to a stack of the forms that are checked off below.

ck the boxes as you make copies. If you want the Sheriff to e, you will need to check off both boxes for each form.	Friend Serves	S eriff Serves

What is a civil harassment restraining order?

It is a court order that prohibits you from doing certain things and going to certain places.

What does the order do?

The court can order you to:

- Not contact the person who asked for the order
- Stay away from that person and the person's home and workplace
- Not have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, or ammunition as long as the order is in effect. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531). For more information about the items you would not be allowed to have, please see https://selfhelp .courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/prohibited-items.

Who can ask for a civil harassment restraining order?

A person who is worried about safety because he or she has been or is being:

- Stalked
- Harassed
- Assaulted, including sexually, or
- Threatened with violence

I've been served with a request for civil harassment restraining orders. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Restraining Order forbidding you from doing certain things. You must obey the order until the hearing.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

You still must obey the order until the hearing. If you disagree with the orders the person is asking for, fill out form CH-120, Response to Request for Civil Harassment Rest raining Orders, before your hearing date and file it with the court. If you need to include attachments, you can use form MC-025. You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. Forms may also be at your local courthouse or county law library.

What if I don't obey the order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine.

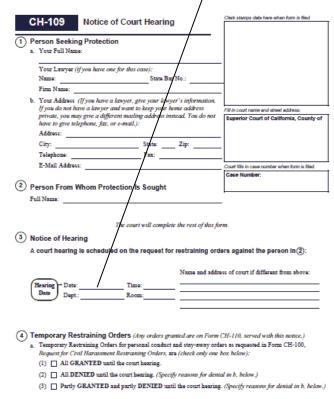

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of completed form CH-120 to the person who asked for the order (or that person's lawyer). (This is called "service by mail.")

The person who serves the form by mail must fill out form CH-250, Proof of Service by Mail. Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Should I go to the court hearing?

Yes. You should go to court on the date listed on form CH-109, Notice of Court Hearing. If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make orders against you without hearing from you.

How Can I Respond to a Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders? (Civil Harassment Prevention) CH-109, Page 1 of 3

How long does the order last?

If the court issued a temporary restraining order before the hearing, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide to continue or cancel the order. Any order issued at the hearing can last for up to five years.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free courtappointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Will I see the person who asked for the order at the court hearing?

Yes. Assume that the person who is asking for the order will attend the hearing. Do not talk to him or her unless the judge or that person's attorney says that you can.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. You can use form MC-030 for this.

Information about the process is also available online.

See https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/CH-restraining-order.

For help in your area, contact:

[Local information may be inserted.]

What if I don't speak English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/request-interpreter.

What if I have a gun?

If a restraining order is issued, you cannot own, possess, or have a firearm (gun), firearm parts, or ammunition while the order is in effect. If you have a firearm (gun) or firearm parts in your immediate possession or control, you must sell it to or store it with a licensed gun dealer, or turn it in to a law enforcement agency.

Can I agree with the protected person to cancel the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or cancel it. You or the protected person would have to file a request with the court to cancel the order.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

What items do I need to turn in, sell, or store?

You must turn in, sell, or store all of the following prohibited items that you have or control:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, or any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531). These may also be called "ghost guns."

You also may not have or possess ammunition.

How do I properly turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

You must take them to:

- Law enforcement, who will accept all prohibited items and may store them or destroy them;
- OR
 - A licensed gun dealer, who can buy or store firearms. If you have firearm parts, call ahead for more information.

When do I have to turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

Immediately, if law enforcement asks you for the items. Otherwise, within 24 hours.

Who can I turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items with?

Only law enforcement or a licensed gun dealer. You cannot give your prohibited items to a family member, friend, or anyone else.

Where can I sell the prohibited items?

At a licensed gun dealer in your area. You can search the internet for "Gun Dealers" or "Firearms Dealers" to find one. Make sure the dealer is licensed.

Do I have to pay a fee to store prohibited items?

You may have to pay a fee. Contact your local law enforcement agency or a licensed gun dealer about fees and whether they have space to store your items.

How do I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement?

Call your local law enforcement agency to ask about their procedures. Unload your firearms and take a copy of the court order with you.

Do not bring firearms to court.

If I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, how long will they keep them?

It depends. There are procedures for getting your firearms back after the restraining order has expired. Ask the law enforcement agency for more information.

After I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, can I change my mind?

Yes. You are allowed to sell firearms to a licensed gun dealer. To do so, the gun dealer must present a bill of sale to your local law enforcement agency. The law enforcement agency will give the licensed gun dealer the items that you are selling.

Do I have to prove that I have turned in, sold, or stored the prohibited items?

Yes. Within 48 hours you must file a receipt with the court showing that you have surrendered the prohibited items to a law enforcement agency or sold them to or stored them with a licensed gun dealer. You may use Receipt for Firearms and Firearm Parts (form CH-800) for this purpose.

Additional Questions?

Contact an attorney for legal advice. Call your local law enforcement agency, for example, your city police or county sheriff for their procedures.

Information about prohibited items and how to obey these orders is also available online.

Your Next Steps

- Find out if you need to pay a fee for service by asking the court's self-help center, a lawyer, or the sheriff's office. Here are some situations where you do not need to pay for service:
 - If you have a fee waiver in your case (fee waiver granted by a judge on form FW-003 or FW-005).
 - If you are serving a domestic violence, elder abuse, or gun violence restraining order.
 - If you have a civil harassment, workplace violence, or school violence restraining order based on a credible threat of violence or stalking.
- Give this form and a copy of all the court papers you need served to the sheriff or marshal, including a copy of a fee waiver (if you have one). If you do not have to pay a fee to the sheriff, you can send your papers electronically. If you have to pay a fee, contact the sheriff to find out your options for turning in your request. Note that you can always turn in your request in person.
- You should get a form back from the sheriff.
 - If the sheriff was able to serve your court papers, you should receive a form (called a proof of service). Make sure you get a copy from the sheriff and file it with the court. Note that if there is a court stamp at the top right corner of the first page, it has already been filed and you do not need to file it with the court.
 - If the sheriff was unable to serve your court papers, you should receive a form (sometimes called declaration of due diligence) that tells you that service was unsuccessful and will give details about when the sheriff tried to serve the person. If the sheriff was unable to serve your papers, you can ask a lawyer or court's self-help center about your next steps.
- To find your local court self-help center, go to www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp. Self-help center staff will not act as your lawyer but may be able to give you information to help you decide what to do in your case. Services are free.

To Sheriff or Marshal

- This form is confidential and must not be made public.
- Any papers submitted with this form should be served and listed on the applicable proof of service form.
- Note that (5) b is optional and may help to identify documents that should have been submitted but were not received by your office.
- Under Government Code section 26666.2, once you've received a completed copy of this form and forms for service, you must attempt service unless:
 - Any order submitted does not have a judge's signature or other representation of a judge's signature; clerk's endorsement; or court stamp, seal, or other court endorsement; or
 - A court case number is not listed on the order, summons, or other notice.
