

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

Policy Regarding Availability And Unavailability of Official Court Reporters

Official court reporters are available in felony criminal cases and juvenile matters during regular court hours. Official court reporters are not available for civil matters in Departments 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47, 53, and 54, all family law and probate matters.

The Sacramento Superior Court provides electronic recording services in infraction and most misdemeanor proceedings. The court may electronically record limited civil proceedings, including unlawful detainers, collections and small claims, if recording equipment is available. This does not apply to Law & Motion matters in Departments 53 and 54.

A party who has been granted a waiver of court fees and costs may request the services of an official court reporter for a proceeding for which a reporter is not available and for which electronic recording is not provided (see above). Such a request should be made using the Request for Court Reporter by a Party with a Fee Waiver form (CV/E-211), available on the court's website, and must be filed with the clerk at least 10 days before the proceeding, or at the time the proceeding is scheduled if less than 10 days away. Failure to comply with this request procedure may result in a waiver, or the court being unable to provide a court reporter or a continuance of the hearing. Party(ies) to the case who do not qualify for a waiver of court fees and costs will be responsible for a pro rata share of the fees.

Note: The court is not obligated to provide court reporter transcripts free of charge to a party who has been granted a waiver of court fees and costs. (See Jameson v. Desta (2018) 5 Cal.5th 594, 623-625.) Assistance may be available through the Transcript Reimbursement Fund. Further information is available on the California Court Reporters Board's website.

Parties may privately arrange for the appointment of a court-approved official court reporter pro tempore without a stipulation for any matter for which a reporter is not available. A list of court-approved certified shorthand reporters, including names and contact information, who can be privately arranged and appointed as an official court reporter pro tempore without stipulation of the parties, is posted on the court's website. Also posted on the website are the policies for court reporters to be approved for the list, and for arranging for the appointment of a reporter.

Parties may, by stipulation, arrange for the appointment of a certified shorthand reporter who is not on the court-approved list to serve in a proceeding as an official court reporter pro tempore where an official court reporter is not available. The court's policy for arranging for a reporter who either is or is not on the court-approved list and other necessary forms and information can be found on the court's website.

The reporting notes of all certified shorthand reporters are the official records of the court and shall be kept by the reporter taking the notes in a place designated by the court, or, upon order of the court, delivered to the clerk of the court (Gov. Code Section 69955(a)). The court's policy for providing the court with electronic notes is posted on the court's website.
